ON the 26th Instant anchored at this Port, two of the King's Half Gallies, on their Return from the Presidii, where they had carried Money and other Necessaries for those Garrisons. The Court has received Notice, that the Beginning of June, the King's Frigate, Notre Dame de la Conception, on her Voyage from this Port to Smyrna, was attacked off Niccoli, by a Tripoline Pirate of 36 Guns and 300 Men, and after an obstinate Combat of several Hours, in which the King's Frigate had one Man killed and fifteen wounded, the Night coming on, they parted, and on the 4th of June the said Frigate got into Smyrna much damag'd. In the Morning of the 28th, Don Anthony Ramega, being then in Company with the Duke of Carignano, in his Coach, was, by Order of the Committee of the Inconfidents, arrested and carried to Prison: In the late Government he had a principal Post in the Secretary of State's Office. The King having demanded a Loan of 75000 Ducats of the Publick Banks, that Sum was immediately granted to him. On the 29th returned to this City from the County of Molise and the Borders of this Kingdom, a Company of Fusileers, sent there to prevent and stop Deserters.

Hague, Aug. 26, N. S. We have had a Confirmation of the News mentioned last Post, relating to the Resolution taken by the Magistrates of Amsterdam, to conform with the other Towns of Holland in the Application of the Revenues of their Post-Offices, and to comply with the Resolution of the States of this Province of the 11th of November last, concerning the Disposal of Employments. This Affair however cannot be entirely determined till the next Meeting of the States of Holland. We don't hear that any thing has yet been resolved on at Amsterdam in regard to the third Article of the Burghers Petition, which relates to the Qualifications of their Officers. The States General have taken a Resolution to continue the full Pay to their Prisoners of War in France till the 21st of next Month.
